In the event of your death, your family may also suffer financially. A life insurance could give your family financial support in the form of a lump-sum payment during a difficult time.

► Personal Accident Insurance (Olycksfallsförsäkring)

Should you have an accident that leads to invalidity or incurs additional costs, a personal accident insurance may provide you with financial support.

► Disability Insurance (Sjukförsäkring)

A long-term illness that effects your ability to work can be a financial burden on you and your family. A disability insurance can complement the support provided by Försäkringskassan and/or insurance provided by your employer, and make the loss of income less severe.

► Diagnosis Insurance (Diagnosförsäkring)

A diagnosis insurance can provide you with financial support, should you be diagnosed with a grave illness. In some cases, through a lump-sum payment in conjunction with being diagnosed.

► Disability Benefit (Sjukkapital)

If your ability to work should be diminished over a longer period of time, your income will decrease. A single-benefit disability insurance could provide you with financial support in the form of a lump-sum payment.

► Medical Insurance (Sjukvårdsförsäkring)

Our medical insurance is a specialist care insurance that give guidance and access to the right specialist in each individual case. Bliwa's medical insurance also guarantees quick access to private health care providers.

► Child Insurance (Barnförsäkring)

With Bliwa's child insurance your children will have financial support in case of illnesses or accidents at any time. You can apply for the child insurance during the pregnancy and get coverage for the unborn child, the person that's pregnant and to some extent the partner, as well as other family members.

► Family Life Insurance (Familjeskydd)

In the event of your death, your family may also suffer financially. Family insurance could give your family financial support in the form of monthly payments during an extended period of time.
